Spring Show is Up and Running

Conway League of Artists' spring show is currently on exhibit at the Faulkner County Library. Show Chair Shirley Bowen reports that this year's show has 18 artists with 32 entries in a variety of mediums: pastel, oil, acrylic, photography, charcoal, pencil, and watercolor.

CLA member Sally Roden registers her artwork for the spring show. Sheila Parsons and Richard Talley manned the intake table at the Faulkner County Library.

Meeting May 11

The next CLA Conway League of Artists meeting will be held Wednesday, May 11 at 6 pm at the Faulkner County Library.

We will be welcoming everyone back by supplying pizza.
Please bring your own drink

Bring a sketch book and drawing materials (your choice) since the program will be Drawing the Figure.

There will be no Art of the Month for May- artworks that are currently on display will remain throughout the month of May.

Hope to see you there!

View the show and VOTE for your favorite! The Viewer's Choice Award for CLA's spring art show is now online thanks to member Tim Donar!

A link will soon be available from the CLA website.

Voting will continue through June 3, and show pick up is scheduled for June 4.

Yea, Jeanetta!

Congratulations to Jeanetta Darley who received a medal for the Award of Excellence at the Greenbrier Art Jam.

ART of the Month

Conway Chamber of Commerce

Sally Roden & Virginia Miller

Faulkner County Library

Christina Blum & Shirley Bowen

First Security Bank

Layton Weaver

Currently there are 5 pieces of artwork on display in Conway for this month.

At the last CLA meeting Coe Wilson (right) presented a demonstration on how to paint realistic clouds.

Thank you, Coe!

Correction: Logan Weaver's name was incorrectly reported in last month's newsletter as Layton Weaver. Logan Weaver painted The Swan.

Call for Board Members

We need YOU!

In order for CLA to offer the programs and opportunities to members, we need people willing to serve on the board. The positions we are needing to fill are president, vice-president, show chair, secretary, treasurer, and member-at-large. If you are interested in one of these positions or you would like to nominate someone for a position (with their approval), please email Leslie Collier at bee121house@yahoo.com. Nominations are open through May 30.

Opportunity

Members of The Conway League of Artists are invited to participate in May Fest located in Hattville, Arkansas, on Saturday, May 14th from 10am-2pm at Sherita Herring-Oglesby's Barnyard, 272 Center School Road, Hattville. There will be vendors for food, flower, wood making, jewelry, and more.

A 10x10 space will be provided for free for up to 3 CLA artists to set up tables to sell their artwork. If interested in participating, please email Sherita: sherita@philanthropyalliance.org

Finished!

And here is Coe's finished cloud painting, which she posted on CLA's Facebook page. Wow!
