SHOW SALES

Congratulations to Marti Evans, Coe Wilson, and Christine Blum and John Lightfoot who all sold paintings at the Fall Show. There may have been more that we didn’t hear about. Coe also sold a piece from First Security Bank.

Congratulations also to Susan Peterson who sold several paintings from the Surgery Center gallery in December.

CLA DUES - Change to Calendar Year

This year’s board has enacted a change in dues collection.

Beginning January 1, 2023, dues will run with the calendar year. What this means is that if you are paid in full, your dues will run through December 2023.

Spencer Jansen, Deputy Director Kansas Museum of Fine Arts

Thanks, Shirley & Christina

Show co-chairs Shirley Bowen and Christina Blum were on hand to assist artists retrieving their works from the show. Congratulations to all who participated.

Arkansas Arts Council Arts In Education Grants

The Arts in Education program initiates new arts programs, or enhances existing ones, in schools and local arts agencies by providing direct interaction with professional artists in residencies for pre K–12 students. All artists involved in AIE residencies must be selected from the Arts in Education Artist Roster.

Three Arts in Education grants are available: After-School / Summer Residency Program, Arts Curriculum Project Grants, and In-School Residency Program. Three Arts in Education mini grants are available: Mini Grant, Lifelong Learning and Veteran's Projects.

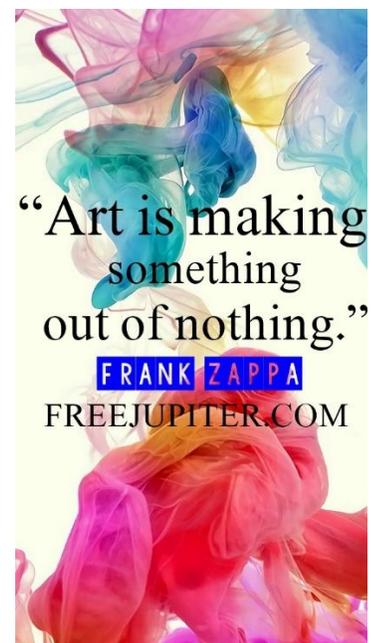

For more information about the Arts in Education program, contact the Arts in Education Program Manager. January 31, 2023 - Deadline for FY24 Arts in Education and Major Arts Partners AIE Grant applications.

Google Arkansas Arts Council for more information.

Art of the Month - January

AOM is back in swing!

Bring a painting to be voted on and hung at one of our locations in town!

CLA Celebrates Christmas

Despite the inclement weather, there was a good turnout at the CLA Christmas Party. Special thanks go to Sheila Parsons and Richard Talley, who hosted the event at their home in Conway.

The food was excellent, the company exceptional, and the surroundings were inspirational. Sheila's art and her art collection are amazing!

Gifts of handmade artwork were exchanged, much to the delight of those who participated or observed.
